DID YOU KNOW?

The Beatles filmed parts of their 1965 movie Help! there. The famous band spent some time in Obertauern, shooting skiing scenes – even though they could barely ski!

HISTORY OF INTERBOURSE

Interbourse 2026 will mark the 57th annual event. The Interbourse programme was established by members of stock exchanges around the globe to meet with colleagues and counterparts for some friendly competition and networking in an informal atmosphere. The first Interbourse was held in France in 1969 with participants from three European exchanges, and has grown from there. Once a year Interbourse brings together up to 500 people from the financial community for a full week of skiing, snowboarding, racing, mountain lunches, dinners, après ski and partying. There is serious official team racing and a thrilling parallel slalom competition, but also the guest race provides the opportunity for anyone to try out racing for the first time. Many areas of the financial industry are represented at the event – CEOs, Stockbrokers, Bankers, Portfolio Managers, Private Equity, Traders, International Exchanges, Wealth Management, Family Office, Analysts, Clearing Houses, Data Vendors and more. All levels of skiers and non-skiers are welcome.

WHY I LOVE INTERBOURSE – AND WHY YOU SHOULD TOO!

„I'm Robert from Team Munich and I've been taking part in the Interbourse since 2006 - first as team captain and racer, I've only been absent twice. Why do I take part? Because, as a passionate stock market person, I take the opportunity to exchange ideas with customers, competitors and partners in a relaxed atmosphere and get to know new perspectives. And as a winter sports fan, I love being out and about in spectacular ski resorts - often in places I would never have discovered otherwise. For me, it's the perfect win-win situation!“
